

On the equation $1^k + 2^k + \cdots + (x - 1)^k = y^z$

Akos Pinter (apinter@math.klte.hu)

University of Debrecen

Institute of Mathematics

P.O.Box 12

4010 Debrecen

Hungary

Abstract. Using computational and theoretical arguments we resolve several special cases of the equation above. (This work is partially joint with M. Jacobson and G. Walsh).

