

On the number of solutions of Diophantine equations

Cameron Stewart (cstewart@watserv1.uwaterloo.ca)

University of Waterloo

Department of Pure Mathematics

Waterloo, ON N2L 3G1

Canada

Abstract. We shall discuss the problem of determining upper and lower bounds for the number of solutions of Diophantine equations. In particular, we shall focus on the recent work of Evertse, Moree, Tijdeman and the author on multivariate Diophantine equations with many solutions.

