

MATH 323: PROBABILITY

GENERAL RESOURCES

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics, as well as the University at large, have many resources to help you succeed in this course and throughout your degree. A more extensive list of resources can be found in the MyCourses Webpage for this Course (under “Content”), as well as the Department’s EOSW webpage (click on link to view). A shortlist of the most commonly used resources is available here:

- The Wellness Hub is a centralized website for student physical and mental health resources.
- The Math Help Desk is staffed by knowledgeable math students who can help answer your questions related to your courses.
- Statistics Online for Students is a resource which offers online help on statistics courses in the department.
- SUMS is the Society of Undergraduate Mathematics Students. Join their Facebook group to get on their listserv, connect with other students in the department, and participate in some of their activities/social events.
- Advising is an important resource to guide you throughout the duration of your degree, and advisors can help with answering questions related to your degree program. Check out the Department’s Advising Website to find out how to get in touch with a Departmental Advisor, should you need to do so.
- McGill’s Coronavirus Website is a centralized website with the most up-to-date information concerning policies and resources related to the COVID-19 pandemic.
